

Summertime Fun and Learning at The Goddard School®

Call today for a complete summer calendar!

Leap Into Literature is for young explorers who want to read between the lines. Each week is a whole new chapter with the works of several authors and oodles of fun! Children will investigate the very buggy world of Eric Carle, create colorful memories with Ezra Jack Keats, and examine a few wild things with Maurice Sendak. Dr. Seuss will stretch imaginations and Mercer Mayer will give everyone the opportunity to learn “All About Me.” Children will hop on a plane with Donald Crews and ride into a circus adventure with H.A. Rey.

The Leap Into Literature calendar also includes special visitors and cultural events throughout the summer. Visitors provide exciting learning opportunities in a safe environment, and include community helpers; performances by storytellers, musicians, and magicians; as well as outreach programs through local museums.
