The Goddard School located at 1155 South Amarias Drive in Round Lake was the host to collecting canned goods for Avon Township Food Pantry on Monday from the beginning of the school day to Friday afternoon, collecting over 1800 items.

The Goddard School located in Round Lake opened 2007 and is owned and operated by John Burnett. The school accommodates all children, ages six weeks to 6 years old.

“We were all delighted to see the great support all our families showed by bringing in so many canned and boxed goods,” says Burnett. “The teachers and children were anticipating a lot of fun and a great learning experience. We are going to make a lot of trips to the pantry to deliver all this food!”

The Goddard School offers a program that focuses on building a strong and balanced foundation of emotional, social, cognitive and physical skills for each child. Goddard provides children with a nurturing environment and a curriculum that encourages learning through play. Families have the convenience of extended hours from 6:45-6:00, the flexibility of either half or full-day schedules and Quality Assurance standards that are monitored corporately.

Parents are encouraged to drop in for a tour or call John Burnett directly to arrange a personal appointment at 847-201-1880.
