SCHOLARSHIP RULES AND CRITERIA

- The applicant must submit a transcript from all colleges and/or universities attended with his or her application. The transcripts must each indicate a cumulative GPA. Applicants must not include (or blackout) any personal identifying information such social security numbers.
- Goddard Systems, Inc. may verify the information the applicant provides.
- The applicant must be a U.S. citizen, a permanent resident or a non-U.S. citizen living legally in the United States.
- The applicant must provide one 30- to 120-second video addressing the questions: what has inspired you to become a teacher and how will you use your passion to inspire children?
- Video size should be 1280x720 pixels; we strongly recommend against compressing your videos. Videos longer than 120 will not be considered, and the corresponding application will be considered incomplete. Video essays should be saved to a USB drive or DVD and mailed with the completed application.
- The video submitted with each application must be the original work of the applicant and may not contain the work, including the intellectual property, of others, such as non-original music.
- A completed scholarship application must be postmarked by March 25, 2019. Applications that are not complete (applications that do not have a completed and signed application, essay, video and transcript(s)) by March 25, 2019 will not be considered. Mail scholarship applications to ATTN: Ready Set Teach Scholarship, Goddard Systems, Inc., 1016 West Ninth Ave., Suite 140, King of Prussia, PA 19406. The applicant should notify Goddard Systems, Inc. promptly if any of the information submitted on or with the application changes after its submission.
- The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of the funds available and the applicants' eligibility. The awards are for one time only.
- The recipient must use the scholarship to study early childhood education, elementary education or child development (or a related field) at an accredited college or university of the recipient's choice.
- Neither Goddard Systems, Inc. employees or their family members, or Goddard School franchisees or their family members are eligible.
- The scholarship finalists will be selected based on their academic records, expressed goals and aspirations, essays and the videos they submit. Financial need is not considered. The decisions of the scholarship committee relating to the selection are final, and information relating to the committee's evaluation of any particular applicant will be confidential. The applicant agrees to accept the final decision of the scholarship committee.
